C. M. Petrie

IV. WHAT WILL HAPPEN WHEN OUR EYESIGHT IS RESTORED?

1. WE WILL HAVE THE ASSURANCE OF A PERSONAL EXPERIENCE,

RATHER THAN THE TESTIMONY OF OTHERS,

Job. 42:5, "I HAVE HEARD OF THEE BY THE HEARING OF THE EAR, BUT NOW MINE EYE SEETH THEE."

2. WE WILL BE CONSCIOUS OF OUR UNWORTHINESS IN THE PRESENCE OF A HOLY AND RIGHTEOUS GOD, Isa. 6:5

3. WE CAN NOT BE DISOBEDIENT TO THE HEAVENLY VISION, ACTS 26:19

4. A child specialist said, "when it comes to a serious illness, the child who has been taught to obey stands four times the chance of recovery that the spoiled and undisciplined child does."

4. WE WILL BRING OR LEAD OTHER BLIND PEOPLE TO THE SAVIOR.

5. WE MAY NOT BE BLIND, AND STILL HAVE IMPERFECT SIGHT.

While imperfect faith will save the soul, yet it will not prevent many incorrect views and many needless fears.

Spiritually speaking, most of us still see men as trees walking. The obvious proof of this is our many various denominations. Two men with perfect sight would see an object alike;

Two with imperfect or very dim sight would each see it to be different.

This is what Paul writes in 1 Cor. 13, this is what Paul writes in 1 Cor. 13,

For now we see through a glass darkly;
but then face to face;
Now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
But then shall I know even as also I am known.

Wilton:

"Thus with the year
Seasons return, but not to me return
Day or the sweet approach of even or morn,
Or sight of vernal bloom or summer's rose,
Or flocks or herds, or human face divine;
But clouds instead and ever during dark Surrounds me, and from the cheerful ways I was Cut off, and for the book of knowledge fair Presented with a universal blank of Nature's works, to me expunged & rased,
And wisdom at one entrance quite shut out."

Looking to Jesus -

an artist once drew a picture.
it represented a night scene.
a solitary man is rowing a little skiff
across a lake;
the wind is high and stormy,
the billows, white and crested,
rage around his frail bark;
and not a star, save one,
shines through the dark & angry sky above.
But upon that lone star the voyager fixes his eye, and keeps rowing away — on, on, and on through the mid-night storm written beneath the picture were these words:
"If I lose that, I'm lost!"
