

I. The Rich Young Ruler. Luke 18:22. (or MK. 10:21)

A. Notice the things not lacking

1. He was a seeker after eternal life. ✓ 18
2. He respected Jesus -- calling Him "The Master, The Good One." He may have believed in the Deity of Jesus. ✓ 19
3. He had kept the commandments from his youth up. He could be called "the rich moral ruler." ✓ 20
4. He was not lacking in wealth, or social position; but this could not save him. ✓ 21

B. The one thing lacking was willingness to part with his most treasured earthly possession which was keeping him from following Christ.

1. He had rather live with his money and then go to hell, rather than give up his wealth in order to go to heaven. (Luss.) the Terrible, drowned, money belt.
2. So today people sell their souls for a cheap price. Mark 8:36.
3. The Wages of Sin is Death, but the Gift of God is Eternal Life. Rom. 6:23
4. Moses was willing to forsake the position of a Prince in Egypt, with all its pleasures and treasures in order to obey the Lord. Heb. 11:24-7
5. The Psalmist had one thing as the aim of his life. Psalms 27:4
6. Paul had "one thing" as the aim of his life; — The Musician Grieg — absorbed in concentration on composition. (Phil. 3:13)

II. Martha, the sister of Mary. Luke 10:38-42

A. Notice the commendable things not lacking about her

1. She received Jesus into her house.
  - (a) She wasn't ashamed of Jesus.
  - (b) She had a desire to do something for the Lord.
2. She was "serving" the Lord — busy preparing the meal and serving it. Her fault wasn't that she was serving the Lord (we all ought to do that), nor that she was doing "much serving" — (none of us can do too much). But her fault was that she was "cumbered" about the service, anxious and troubled about many things. But that was caused from one great fundamental thing neglected in her life.

being
distracted in different directions

Jno. 6:27 — meat which perisheth... endureth

Thou art careful and troubled =
" anxious " bustling.

• 25:51 end . te l*W* gmoY doR eft. I

B. The one thing lacking was fellowship of sitting at Jesus' feet, as Mary did, and communion with Him in hearing his word.

Marich Chapel #1, Ft. Bear, Oct. 25, 1959

"Christ never asks of us such busy labor
As leaves no time for resting at His feet;

The waiting attitude of expectation

He oftentimes counts a service most complete.

He sometimes wants our ear--our rapt attention,

That He some sweetest secret may impart;

'Tis always in the time of deepest silence

That heart finds deepest fellowship with heart.

And yet He does love service, where 'tis given

By grateful love that clothes itself in deed;
At work that's done beneath the scourge of duty.

But work that's done beneath the scourge of duty,
Be sure to such He gives but little heed.

Then seek to please Him, whatsoe'er He bids thee,
Whether to do or suffer—He still

Whether to do--to suffer--to lie still,
Will matter little by what path He leadeth.

"Twill matter little by what path He leads thee,
If in it all thou seek'st to do His will."

IT IS ALL THOU SEEkest SO GO THY WILL.

Remember for whom their sacrifices are made.
for whom? for Him who built the fabric of the universe, and over whose wondrous creation
the morning stars sang together, and all the lone if God shouted for joy.
for whom? for Him who is the brightness of the other's glory, and the express image of His person, "in whom" "dwells all the fullness" the God head bodily.
for whom? for Him "who was rich, yet for your sakes became poor."