

INTRODUCTION: Stories about soldiers in the Bible fascinate us, ~~who are in the army today~~ -- especially when they throw as much light on our present day situation as the interesting one about the Roman officer named Cornelius. He was the commander of almost 100 volunteers ~~for~~ of the Roman forces in Judea with headquarters in Caesarea. Let's pull back the curtain ^{of time} and look at some of the scenes in the life of this interesting soldier, and see what we can learn this morning.

THE Honest Inquirer
 I. ~~A RELIGIOUS SOLDIER~~ An open-minded person who was ready to believe.

- A. Cornelius was a good ~~& religious~~ man who revered God and prayed to him, but without church connections or a personal experience.
- B. He was seeking further guidance & help in his spiritual life.
- C. He must have been praying for enlightenment & inner peace.
- D. Outward religion, good living & character, and charitable gifts are not in themselves enough.
- E. God gives further light to those who live up to the light they have & seek more light & help. (Jn. 1:9)
- F. Who was this devout soldier, a military orderly, whom Cornelius sent with two household servants to Joppa for Peter? (vs 7)

Could it not be that this unnamed orderly was a Xtn & by his ~~dedicated Xtn life~~ & witness & prayers helped to lead Cornelius to this experience?

THE FAITHFUL
 II. ~~CHAPLAIN~~ preacher IS SUMMONED

- A. So the officer sends for a ~~CHAPLAIN~~ preacher -- named Peter, who comes right away.

B. He finds a large crowd gathered, a congregation of friends & relatives of the Roman officer.

- C. He asked, somewhat hesitantly, I think, why they had sent for him (vs 29)

Why DO ~~soldiers~~ people call for the ~~chaplain~~ pastor?

- 1. Because of some crisis, like a death, or serious accident, or trouble, entering battle or combat, or a domestic emergency, etc. Because of fear.

- 2. Because they want him to give his blessing to something that is wrong or questionable. They want to use him.

In 7:17, "If any man's will is to do His will,
he shall know whether the teaching
is from God..."

...almost 100 volunteers of the Roman forces in Judea with headquarters in Caesarea.
Let's pull back the curtain and look at some of the scenes in the life of this interesting soldier, and see what we can learn this morning.

I. A RELIGIOUS SOLDIER
A. Cornelius was a good & religious man who revered
God and prayed to him, but without church connections.
B. He was seeking further guidance & help in his spiritual life.
C. He must have been praying for enlightenment & peace.
D. Outward religion, good living & character, and characteristic gifts are not in themselves enough.
E. God gives further light to those who live up to the light they have & seek more light & help.
F. Who was this devout soldier, a military orderly,
whom Cornelius sent with two household servants
to Joppa for Peter? (vs 7)
Could it not be that this unnamed orderly was a Xen & by his dedication to his wife & prayers helped to lead Cornelius to this experience?

II. THE MIRACLE OF THE RAIN
A. So the officer sends for a Christian -- named Peter,
who comes right away.
B. He finds a large crowd gathered, a congregation of friends & relatives of the Roman officer.
C. He asked, somewhat hesitantly, I think,
why they had sent for him (vs 29)
Why DO soldiers call for the chaplain?
I. Because of some trials, like a death, or serious accident, or trouble, entering battle or combat,
or a domestic emergency, etc.
2. Because they want him to give his blessing to something that is wrong or questionable.

802- 3. Because they ^{sincerely} want him to show them the way to God, to hear the gospel message which he has been ordered by the Lord to proclaim, (vs 33), ^{and} WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY PETER HAD! ^{because they need a shepherd.} ~~Few~~ ^{preachers} ~~CHAPLAINS~~ HAVE EVER HAD A MORE READY CONGREGATION.

Cornelius said, "Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord."

Any ^{preacher} ~~chaplain~~ would give half of kingdom to be so addressed by his congregation!

^{Paster's} III. THE ~~CHAPLAIN'S~~ SERMON (10:36-43) - ^{sums up the} ~~gospel~~

- A. A good example of apostolic preaching in Acts
 - 1. He sets forth the essential facts about Jesus
 - a. God annointed Jesus with the HS & power
 - b. He went about doing good, healing, etc.
 - c. He was crucified in J'lem
 - d. God raised him on the third day
 - 2. He indicates something of the theological significance
 - a. Jesus is Lord of All

 - c. Forgiveness received through His name
 - 3. God shows no partiality
 - (1) Between civilians & military people ^{Jews & Gentiles}
 - (2) Between officers & enlisted men ^{and women}
 - (3) Between races or color
 - (4) Between people of different religions ^{or nationalities}
- B. The Word which is proclaimed
 - 1. The good news of peace by Jesus Christ
 - 2. "You must know the story of Jesus; it has spread thru all Judea & Galilee."
 - 3. We are eyewitnesses
 - 4. We are the men whom he commanded to preach and bear fearless witness.

IV. THE AMAZING RESULTS - (vs 44-48)

- A. The Holy Spirit fell on them -
A GLORIOUS INTERRUPTION!
- B. a great spiritual awakening.
- C. New doors opened to the gospel.
- D. New understandings, intergration, and new directions for the N.T. churches.
