

LIFE AND MORE LIFE, Jn. 10:10
"Life In All Its Fullness" — N.E.B.

Introduction: Efforts to increase length of life

I. Why Christ Came

- A. That lost people might have eternal life
 - 1. Naturally dead in trespasses and sin.
 - 2. Christ the only source of spiritual life.

Jn. 3:16; 5:40; 6:33 "I am the ~~door~~"

- B. That those to whom he has given life might have it more abundantly.

- 1. Life is often a matter of degrees
 - a. Plant and animal
 - b. Animal and human
 - c. Sickness and health
 - d. Infant and adult
 - e. Prisoner and free man
- 2. Christ gives spiritual life in superabundance.
- 3. Between the weakest Christian and the best example of the unregenerated man, if not to human eyes, yet to the eyes of God, there is all the difference between life & death.

II What is this More Abundant Life?

- A. A life of stronger spiritual stamina
- ✓ B. An enlarged sphere of life — Insincerity not enough not "cribbed, cabined, and confined."
- C. Full exercise of all our powers.
- D. More abundant than the life of Paradise which Adam and Eve enjoyed in the Garden of Eden before they sinned.
- E. More abundant than the O.T. dispensation
- F. Life renewed in the likeness of Christ.

III. How to have this more abundant life.

 - 2. Seen in Jesus Christ
- C. We must be filled with the Holy Spirit
 - 1. God's purpose for this filling
 - 2. Our capacities for this filling
- ✗ D. It must be carefully cultivated by every means of growth in grace.
- E. We will have all eternity to develop this ideal.

IV. What is the Effect of this More Abundant Life?

Notes for sermon on "The More Abundant Life" including, verses from the Book of John

II. B. "Nothing is more dangerous than conscientious stupidity and sincere ignorance." U.S. Senator

I do not want merely to possess a faith;
I want a faith that possesses ME.

Before one learns to live life in all its fullness, he must learn to live with himself and to live with others.

Only when we do more than is demanded
do we find the joy and freedom of life
in all its fullness.

III.A. We are our own greatest enemy in ~~the~~ ^{the} living life in all its fullness. The perfect victory is to triumph ~~over~~ ^{over} ourselves.

The man who lives by himself and for himself is apt to be corrupted by the company he keeps.

Victor Frankl, the great Austrian psychiatrist, said, "The radius of our activity is not important, but important alone is whether we fill the circle of our tasks."

Many Christians have lots of busy trivial activities, but they never find their unique calling and fulfill it.

III.B. The secret of the more abundant life is to live each moment like a child,
without looking backward nor forward.

You never begin to live until you begin to live FOR SOMETHING.

No life is full unless it is linked to something that goes on after death.

III.D. How do we live life in all its fullness?

1. We can stretch the mind.
We need to grow mentally, pursuing fresh intellectual interests,
developing our mind, ~~consciousness~~,
widening our consciousness.

2. Look and behold the wonders of the world.

"This is my Father's world,
And to my listening ears, ~~and~~
All nature sings, and round me rings
The music of the spheres."

CONCLUSION:
"Build thee more stately mansions O my soul
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell ~~temple~~
by life's unresting sea!"

"The Chambered Nautilus."
