ADDRESS:

Nations have always paid the highest tribute to those who have given their lives in the line of duty.
We cannot escape the conviction that those who die,
in a very real sense give their lives that we might live.
They are our substitutes in the hard battle for national and social existence.

On a shore far away, deep in the hills and jungles of South Viet Nam, and at the airport before departure for the homeland, a service was read and a prayer was said for him whom we honor this day. We have gathered today to pay the tribute of grateful nations and people united in the defense of freedom. In love and appreciation we call to our minds and hearts the dedicated life which was lived in our midst

(See p. 191)

- I. We meet in this service to add our personal affections along with the national tribute.
- II. We also give a new pledge of consecration to the ideals for which this man fought and died.
  - A. Consecration to our country and to the cause of freedom for all.
  - B. Consecration to the Savior in whom he trusted.
    1. Christ was the answer to immortal and eternal life for him, (p. 181)
    2. Heaven is a place prepared for him (p. 185)

2nd Timothy 4:6-8, "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

1st Corinthians 15:54-58, "When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory."

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.
