~~BUT WHERE IT LIGHTS, THE FAVORED PLACE~~

~~BY RICHEST FRUITS IS KNOWN."~~

Notes for "SWAYED BY A STILL SMALL VOICE"

The still small voice of God can bring us out of our "Cave Moods." Often we, like Elijah, withdraw into our "cave Moods" and lodge there.

Our minds and hearts go into hiding.

Elijah was free from Ahab and Jezebel, but he was a prisoner of HIMSELF.

He had shut the sunlight of God's love out of his life, and he had drawn the shutters of his heart.

Have you sometimes felt like that?

It can happen so easily if we fail to stand up for Jesus Christ. We don't have to deny him.

"When Jesus came to Golgotha they hanged Him on a tree,
They drove great nails through hands and feet,

and made a Calvary;

They crowned Him with a crown of thorns,
red were His wounds and deep.

For those were crude and cruel days,
and human flesh was cheap.

When Jesus came to Birmingham, they simply passed him by,

They never hurt a hair of Him, they only let him die;

For men had grown more tender,

and they would not give him pain,

They only just passed down the street,
and left him in the rain.

Still Jesus cried, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do,

And still it rained the winter rain that chilled him through and through;

The crowds went home and left the streets
without a soul to see,

And Jesus crouched against a wall and cried for Calvary."

-- G.A. Studdert Kennedy, "Indifference," in The Sorrows of God (New York: Harper, 1924).

When we crucify Christ afresh by our indifference, it is little wonder that we feel like withdrawing into a cave of guilt & despair, but the good news of the Gospel assures us that is not necessary!
